Bryan Pautsch, CPA, JD

ARTICLE 03.25.24 BOP-ADMIN

Professional Experience

Bryan joined Dean Dorton (formerly VonLehman) as an established and reputable nonprofit tax professional with over 25 years of experience serving nonprofit organizations. Prior to joining Dean Dorton, Bryan was the nonprofit tax leader for a top 50 CPA firm. He has focused his entire career on tax specialization within the nonprofit industry.

In the early stages of his career, Bryan established himself as an authority in service of nonprofit organizations. His passion for the nonprofit industry yields vast experience across virtually all industry sectors including civic, community, healthcare, Greek, religious, educational and cultural organizations, as well as private foundations and trade associations, among others. Bryan frequently speaks on exempt topics and organizational structure through a variety of industry events.

Bryan's tax expertise, coupled with his genuine appreciation for the success of nonprofit missions, makes him an invaluable member of Dean Dorton's Nonprofit Group.
