Professional Experience

As the leader of Dean Dorton's Small Business Tax team in Indianapolis, Yvonne collaborates extensively with business owners and nonprofit directors to streamline accounting processes and procedures. She is an enthusiastic advisor who leverages today's techno-logical innovations to help organizations and nonprofit boards improve the management of their books and their understanding of the financial operations.

Yvonne has over 30 years of experience with QuickBooks, Sage, and numerous other accounting software systems. She is a software enthusiast who embraces technology to identify opportunities and create efficiencies in data accumulation, while improving the quality, quantity, and ease of access to information. This information access is invaluable to management and decision makers as it affords them the ability to make real-time decisions that directly affect their organizations and businesses.

Yvonne specializes in individual tax and trusts and estates tax planning and preparation, as well as serving nonprofit and professional service organizations as a trusted advisor through a myriad of accounting and tax services.
