

Jami Vallandingham, CPA

ARTICLE 03.18.24 ALLISON KORN

Professional Experience

Jami Vallandingham has 30 years of tax experience. If you want an advisor who is just as invested in your business's success as you are, look no further. Jami cares about her clients like family, personally guiding them through the strategic business aspects of their unique challenges. Her creativity, centered on the individual client, has produced positive results measured by the impact of her proactive advice and in tax savings to her clients. As leader of the firm's 1040 practice, Jami understands that reading and analyzing income and financial statements is no small task. She focuses on making tax law understandable and is always looking for ways to get her clients the best possible return. Jami joined Dean Dorton after merging her prior firm, VonLehman CPAs & Advisors, in 2024.
