

Dean Dorton Expands Into Texas

ARTICLE 07.10.24 DEAN DORTON

Dean Dorton, a leading accounting and consulting firm, is pleased to announce the acquisition of DeRosa Mangold Consulting, a SaaS solutions provider based in Waco, Texas. This acquisition will expand Dean Dorton's capabilities in providing specialized accounting software and ERP solutions, particularly in the manufacturing and distribution sectors.

The acquisition expands on Dean Dorton's accounting software offerings. Dean Dorton will integrate Sage 100 and Sage Distribution and Manufacturing Operations (SDMO) products into its offerings, further solidifying its position as a leader in ERP solutions for diverse industries.

We are excited to welcome the DeRosa Mangold team to Dean Dorton. This acquisition aligns with our strategic vision to help turn business challenges into opportunities, through our expertise and service offerings in the manufacturing and distribution sectors along with continued expansion of franchises, and rental software such as Point of Rental. The addition of Sage 100 and SDMO products will enable us to provide even greater value to our clients.

The integration of DeRosa Mangold's specialized knowledge and industry-specific solutions will significantly benefit Dean Dorton's existing and future clients. The combined strengths of both organizations will bring enhanced customized integrations to best-in-class ERP systems such as Sage Intacct, which drive business growth by streamlining operations, enhancing real-time data access, and improving scalability and flexibility, thereby enabling more efficient decision-making and resource management.

Joining forces with Dean Dorton is a tremendous opportunity for our clients and team. Dean Dorton's commitment to excellence and innovation makes them the ideal partner to continue to provide solutions to the most complex challenges our clients face, setting them up for long-term success. We look forward to leveraging Dean Dorton's extensive resources and expertise.
