

End of Year Tax & Accounting Reminders for Equine Operations

ARTICLE 11.08.24 AUTUMN HINES

June 17 @ 12:04 pm

As we approach December, it's time to revisit tax planning and get organized for year-end accounting! On Thursday, December 5th, please join our equine experts from Dean Dorton for a FREE continuing education focusing on end-of-year tax and accounting strategies tailored specifically for equine operations. This session will provide valuable insights to all equine operators, whether you're managing a racing stable, breeding operation, sport horse operation, or everything in between. You will leave this session with a better understanding of tax incentives benefiting equine operations, key reminders and deadlines for equine-related tax filings, practical tips on tracking and documenting income and expenses, best practices for year-end accounting, as well as updates on any new tax laws impacting the equine industry. This session will qualify for 1 hour of continuing professional education for CPAs.

Speakers:

- Jen Shah, CPA | Tax Director
- Melissa Hicks, CPA | Tax Director
- Emily Anderson, CPA | Accounting and Financial Outsourcing Manager
