

Dean Dorton's Elizabeth Woodward Inducted into American College of Bankruptcy

ARTICLE 03.24.26 DEAN DORTON

Dean Dorton is proud to announce that Elizabeth Zachem Woodward, CPA/CFF, CFE, has been inducted as a Fellow into the American College of Bankruptcy as part of its 37th Class. Woodward was formally recognized during the College's annual induction ceremony held March 19–21, 2026, in San Antonio, Texas, with the induction ceremony taking place at the Briscoe Western Art Museum.

This prestigious honor is awarded by invitation only to professionals who demonstrate the highest standards of expertise, leadership, integrity, and service in the bankruptcy and insolvency field.

Woodward serves as Lexington Market Leader and Director of Forensic and Valuation Services at Dean Dorton. With more than 30 years of experience, she is a recognized leader in bankruptcy accounting, litigation support, and forensic accounting.

Throughout her career, Woodward has served in numerous fiduciary roles, including Chief Restructuring Officer, Receiver, Fee Examiner, and Subchapter V Bankruptcy Trustee. She has also provided expert testimony in state and federal courts and served as a Compliance Ethics Monitor reporting to federal agencies.

"Elizabeth's induction into the American College of Bankruptcy is a well-deserved recognition of her outstanding contributions to the profession and her unwavering commitment to excellence," said Jason Miller, CEO Dean Dorton. "She exemplifies the leadership and integrity that define our firm."

The American College of Bankruptcy is an honorary association that brings together leading professionals dedicated to advancing the practice, scholarship, and service of bankruptcy and insolvency law.

Please join us in congratulating Elizabeth on this significant achievement.