GASB Statement No. 103, Financial Reporting Model Improvements

ARTICLE 05.21.26 DANIELLE CAMARA

November 21 @ 10:14 pm

Join Dean Dorton's government accounting specialists and Simon Keemer, CPA, CGMA, ACA, Assurance Director, for an updated discussion on GASB Statement No. 103 and what it means for governmental entities. This webinar will provide practical insights into the standard's requirements, implementation considerations, and potential impacts on financial reporting. Our team will walk through key provisions, common challenges, and best practices to help your organization prepare with confidence.

What You'll Learn:

- Overview of GASB 103
- Key accounting and reporting considerations
- Implementation timelines and requirements
- Practical examples and common challenges
- Best practices for successful adoption

Who Should Attend:

Government finance professionals, accountants, auditors, and others involved in financial reporting and compliance for public sector entities.

Why Attend?

GASB 103 represents the most significant update to compensated absences guidance in decades. Understanding the standard and its practical impact can help your organization navigate implementation with confidence. Dean Dorton's experienced government advisors will share actionable insights and real-world considerations to help you prepare.

? CPE Credit Available
Eligible participants may earn 1 hour of CPE credit for attending this live session. CPE credit is available to live attendees only.

WATCH ON DEMAND