ARTICLE 10.06.15 DEAN DORTON

We are excited to announce that some of our construction industry experts, Simon Keemer and Nick Lynch, will play integral roles in this year's Construction Financial Management Association's (CFMA) Ohio Valley Construction Conference at the Horseshoe Hotel and Casino on October 22-23, 2015.

Nick Lynch, one of Dean Dorton's certified forensic accountants, will discuss current trends seen in fraud cases from professionals working in the construction field during the Fraud Panel on October 23, from 1:00 – 2:15 p.m. Panelists will use real life scenarios to highlight areas where you can reduce the risk of fraud in your business. Simon Keemer, leader of our construction industry team, will moderate the panel.

The Ohio Valley Construction Conference offers members and nonmembers from the Louisville, Indianapolis, Evansville and Lexington chapters of the CFMA and the Kentucky Society of CPAs the opportunity to participate in two full days of education (16 CPE credit hours) and networking. The conference also provides unique opportunities for construction industry financial leaders to discuss the issues they face on a daily basis. We hope to see many of you there.
