

CFO Perspective: Why Massey and Sage Intacct?

ARTICLE 04.02.18 DEAN DORTON

"I'm a very loyal customer for good products and good people, and that's exactly what I get from both Massey and Sage Intacct- good products and good people".

Massey Consulting's goal is to build close relationships with our customers, and stick with them as they grow, to see their company succeed every step of the way. That means we need to offer products that are a great solution for our customers now, and as much as in the future.

Hear from Ellen Grantham, the CFO at K4Connect and a current Massey Consulting and Sage Intacct client, on how these two companies work together as a powerful combination to make your business scale.

K4Connect is an Internet of Things company, offering software solutions that serve and empower older adults and individuals living with disabilities, enhancing their lives by integrating the latest in smart technologies into a single responsive system.
