

Accounting Support is Just Ahead!

Let's face it, life happens! If your accounting and finance team is in a bind due to unexpected turnover, leave-of-absence, or your organization is just too busy, Dean Dorton is here to help. Our Short-Term Accounting Services provide a scalable solution to help you manage your accounting in a cost-effective manner, customized to meet your needs.

Working with Dean Dorton Accounting and Financial Outsourcing on a short-term basis allows you to keep your team running smoothly while giving you time back to focus on running your business.

Benefits of working with us for short-term assistance

- » A team of experienced professional accountants at the ready to support your organization
- » Cost-effective fee tailored to your specific needs
- » Industry experience to allow a smooth transition
- » Fresh insights into the ongoing accounting function
- » Proper internal controls and segregation of duties
- » Experience with state of the art cloud based accounting tools to evaluate your organization
- » Remove the stress of recruiting and hiring accounting personnel

Our short-term accounting services

Accounts payable and employee expense reimbursement

Financial reporting and analysis

Bank and credit card reconciliation

Development of workflows and closing schedule

Payroll administration

Board/management presentation

Month-end closing

Role-specific services: clerical assistance, controller level, CFO coaching

Team-based approach so you're always supported

Justin Hubbard, CPA, CGMA
Associate Director of Accounting and Financial Outsourcing
jhubbard@deandorton.com
859.425.7604

Krista Nash
Manager of Accounting and Financial Outsourcing
knash@deandorton.com
919.745.8046